

ANDREA M. BROKENSHERE

Painted Silk Appliqué on Silk

SUPPLY LIST

I am inspired by the natural world. Won't you join me in my paint box to learn my technique for painting realistic floral imagery onto silk? You will have a choice between three different flowers for your project. To make it easy, all materials you will need will be provided with just a little homework before class. In addition to painting your beautiful flower, I will also demonstrate how I create my highly textural confetti backgrounds and my technique for turning the edges of the finished appliqué for a clean finish. Let's have some fun and create with paint and fiber.

Limit of 8 students per project.
The "Dippity Dots" is the most challenging, then "The Ladies Slipper", and the easiest is "Into The Haze Of The Mystic".

There will be homework prior to class. Each student will need to trace the project line drawing onto freezer paper. You will have a choice between three different flowers for your project.

Please pick one of the flowers and let me know your choice so that I can mail the project line drawing and brief instructions a month before class begins.
